Course Description:

This course introduces students to the expanding and variegated landscape of Christian Nationalism in the U.S. and beyond. It situates Christian Nationalism in the U.S. as part of the history of Christianity and American history, rather than an aberration or something new. Along the way we explore constructions of race and gender, and we examine how racism, antisemitism, and patriarchy are foundational elements in and of Christian Nationalism. We also explore the influence of Christian Nationalism on U.S. politics and the challenges it poses to the separation of church and state, and to democracy, as we look to the future.

Course Objectives:

This course aims to:

- introduce the varieties of Christian Nationalism in the contemporary US
- historicize contemporary US Christian Nationalism/Supremacy
- explore the role of Christian Nationalism in Jan. 6 Insurrection and its aftermath
- examine the roles racism and patriarchy play in Evangelicalism and Christian Nationalism
- examine the roles anti-Judaism and antisemitism play in Christianity
- think critically about constructions of race and gender in Christian Nationalisms
- explore the connections between religion (Christianity) and politics in the United States
- develop skills for productive, rigorous, and nuanced conversations about complex, emotional topics

Course Requirements:

- Active participation. Please come to class ready to engage with the readings and contribute to class discussion. (20%)
- For each class bring at least two questions based on the readings that would be appropriate questions for a quiz and/or midterm exam. These questions will also form part of class discussion (20%)
- Quizzes (20%)
- Midterm Exam in class March 5th (20%)
- Final Exam (20%)

Course Policies:

Accommodations:

"If you believe you need accommodations for a disability or a chronic medical condition, please contact Student Disability Services (Parrish 113W) via email at studentdisabilityservices@swarthmore.edu to arrange an appointment to discuss your needs. As appropriate, the Office will issue students with documented disabilities or medical conditions a formal Accommodations Letter. Since accommodations require early planning and are not retroactive, please contact Student Disability Services as soon as possible. For details about the accommodations process, visit the Student Disability Services website. You are also welcome and encouraged to contact me privately to discuss your academic needs. I am committed to your success and will do what I can to support your learning process. However, all disability-related accommodations must be arranged, in advance, through Student Disability Services."
